⁴ The successful candidate must hold a valid personnel security clearance at the above defined EU level or be able and willing to apply for a security clearance immediately after the contract award. The procedure for obtaining a personnel security clearance shall be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

1. SECURITY DEPARTMENT

The GSA Security Department proactively contributes to the fulfilment of GSA missions by providing the security expertise and support in order to (1) achieve successful security accreditation of the systems, (2) secure programmes' implementation and exploitation and (3) ensure a wide, secure and sustainable use of the Public Regulated Service (PRS)⁵.

Among others, the Security Department has the responsibility of the following tasks:

- Galileo Security Accreditation: The Accreditation Team of the Security Department supports the GSA Security Accreditation Board (SAB) for the European GNSS. The GSA chairs and supports also the SAB subordinates bodies like the Galileo Security Accreditation Panel (GSAP) and the Crypto Distribution Authority (CDA).
- GNSS Security Requirements and Standards: Defining the security requirements and following up on their implementation in all GSA contracts related to Galileo and EGNOS exploitation activities. This also includes the preparation of the security accreditation files for the system and services to be submitted to the GNSS Security Accreditation Authority (SAB). The task is performed by a specific team in close collaboration with the GSA Galileo and EGNOS Exploitation teams.
- PRS User Segment: The GSA supports the development of the PRS User Segment with specific technological projects. The Agency also collaborates with the European Commission in technical and secretariat activities related to the management of the Working Groups established by the European GNSS Security Board.
- Central Security Office: The Central Security Office (CSO) implements (and monitors the correct implementation of) the European Commission's internal security rules applicable to the GSA, as laid down in Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2015/444. This office also assumes the functions of the Agency's Central EU Classified Information (EUCI) Registry, and supports the other teams of the Security Department, as well as the whole Agency, in the handling of EUCI and in maintaining the accreditation of the internal Agency's infrastructure and IT assets. The CSO oversees the implementation of the security rules in the GSA Headquarter located in Prague (Czech Republic) as well as other GSA facilities.

⁵ PRS: Public Regulated Service, corresponding to the governmental applications of the Galileo system.

2. TASKS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Local Informatics Security Officer (LISO) will play an important role within the GSA security structures. The LISO shall in principle report to the Central Security Office Manager and will support the activities related to the security of the GSA Communication and Information Systems (CIS)⁶.

The LISO may also be expected to assist the Local Security Officer (LSO) regarding the handling and protection of EU Classified Information (EUCI), and the compliance with relevant security and data protection rules.

The jobholder's tasks and responsibilities shall in principle include (without limitation) and subject to adjustment by his/her line manager:

- Developing and managing the GSA security plans, processes and policies to attain compliance to European Commission Security legislation for what concerns CIS systems
- Contributing to the dissemination of the information systems security policy by proposing awareness-raising and annual mandatory training programmes for staff and contractors
- Collaborating with the LSO and acting as IT security adviser
- Collaborating with the GSA Data Protection Officer (DPO) and supporting the implementation of the CIS processes related to the data protection
- Overseeing the development of the security plans
- Organising the IT security audits and reviews in all GSA sites
- Ensuring that an inventory of all CIS is kept and updated, with a description of the security requirements and a maintenance of the evidence demonstrating compliance to those requirements
- Advising and reporting to his/her superior, the system owners, CIS service providers and project leaders on CIS security matters
- Ensuring through compliance inspection, audit or other supervisory/monitoring instruments as necessary, that CIS service providers and system suppliers establish and implement the security measures required under security plans in order to achieve and maintain compliance to those plans
- Contributing to the security systems accreditation, including the organisation of the reviews required for the accreditation process of the GSA CIS internal systems, in support of the GSA Security Accreditation Authority
- Participating and where necessary leading a Computer Security Incident Response team in order to detect, contain and rectify security issues arising from unauthorised access or breach of GSA CIS
- Keeping himself/herself informed of the technology developments, threats and protection measures in the field of security pertaining to CIS
- Performing other duties relevant to the role of LISO when identified by management or as required by legislation

As a member of the GSA Central Security Office, the LISO may at times be required to support other team members in their duties, especially in tasks regarding the management of European Union classified information, management of physical security (security contracts management, assistance to meetings/visitors, management of the GSA badges and Access Control System), raising general security awareness of the GSA staff, assistance to the COMSEC Officer or Crypto Custodian in the generation and distribution of cryptographic key material⁷, etc.

In his/her normal usual role or in such back-up roles, it may be necessary for the LISO to be available for on-call/stand-by duties outside normal working hours (availability by phone with ability to come back to the site within predefined elapsed times that will be established to meet operational external requirements), e.g. to investigate/mitigate any security issue related to IT and/or physical security of the GSA premises.

⁶ As defined in the EC Decision 2015/444/EU on the security rules for protecting EU classified information.

⁷ In all cases, appropriate additional training will be provided should the need to support these roles arise.

The LISO may be required to undertake missions to the GSA sites and offices, namely the GSMC site in Saint-Germain-en-Laye, France, GSMC site in Swanwick, United Kingdom, GRC site in Nordwijk, GSC site in Torrejon and potentially other future GSA sites, and occasionally participate to missions to Brussels, Belgium.

3. PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS

A. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The selection procedure is open to applicants who satisfy the following eligibility criteria, on the closing date for application:

1. Have a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies⁸ of at least three years attested by a diploma and appropriate professional experience⁹ of at least one year after obtaining the final diploma
2. Be a national of a Member State of the European Union or Norway

4. Have fulfilled any obligations imposed by the applicable laws concerning military service
5. Meet the character requirements for the duties involved¹⁰
6. Have a thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the European Union¹¹ and a satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties
7. Be physically fit to perform the duties linked to the post¹²

⁸ Only study titles that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the said Member States shall be taken into consideration.

⁹ Only appropriate professional experience acquired after achieving the minimum qualification stated in A.1 shall be considered. Where additional periods of training and study are accompanied by periods of professional activity, only the latter shall be considered as professional experience. Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after achieving the minimum qualification stated in A.1. shall be taken into consideration. Internships will be taken into consideration, if they are paid. Professional activities pursued part-time shall be calculated pro rata, on the basis of the percentage of full-time hours worked. A given period may be counted only once.

¹¹ The languages of the EU are: Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, Irish, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovene, Spanish, Swedish.

¹² Before a successful candidate can be appointed, s/he will be medically examined by a selected medical service so that the Agency will be satisfied that s/he fulfils the requirement of Article 28(e) of the Staff Regulation of Officials of the European Communities.

B. SELECTION CRITERIA

All eligible applications, according to the afore-mentioned criteria (part A), will be assessed against the requirements listed below. The Selection Board responsible for this selection will determine the criteria to be assessed in the various phases of the selection procedure (assessment of the application forms, interview and written test) prior to being granted access to the names of the applicants. At least all essential criteria will be assessed during the applications evaluation phase.

Please note that non-compliance with any one of the essential requirements (B.1) will result in exclusion of the candidate from the selection process.

Advantageous requirements (B.2) constitute additional assets and will not result in exclusion, if not fulfilled.

1) Essential qualifications and experience

- i. University degree in a relevant field (engineering, informatics, exact science etc.)
- ii. Experience relevant to the tasks described, preferably gained within an international environment
- iii. Professional experience with security aspects of CIS systems, preferably for processing of classified information
- iv. Professional experience in handling classified material within a national or international environment, including issues related to EU or national security
- v. Excellent command of both written and spoken English

2) Advantageous qualifications and experience

- vi. Previous experience in the security accreditation of CIS systems
- vii. Professional certificates in the CIS security field and experience of working with a broad range of CIS technologies and devices
- viii. Knowledge (by training or experience) of methodologies for CIS Security Management and Business Continuity Management
- ix. Experience in handling Computer Security Incident Response

3) Behavioural competences

- x. Motivation
- xi. Excellent communication skills
- xii. Analytical and problem solving skills
- xiii. Working with others
- xiv. Stress management and flexibility

4. SELECTION PROCEDURE

The selection procedure includes the following steps:

- After registration, each application will be checked in order to verify that it meets the eligibility criteria.
- All eligible applications will be evaluated by a Selection Board based on the selection criteria defined in this vacancy notice.
- The best-qualified candidates, those who obtained the highest number of points within the evaluation, will be short-listed for an interview. The minimum threshold is 65% of the total points.
- During the interview, the Selection Board will examine each candidate's profile and will assess their relevancy for this post. In order to support the evaluation via interview, shortlisted candidates will be required to undergo a computer-based written test relevant to the job content (the minimum threshold for this test is 50% of the total points allocated for it) and to complete part of the process in their second EU language. All candidates short-listed for an interview will also be requested to complete an online Business Attitude Questionnaire.
- Candidates will be requested to bring with them on the day of the interview photocopies of all the supporting documents for their educational qualifications and employment necessary to prove that they meet the eligibility criteria. GSA has the right to disqualify applicants who fails to submit all the required documents.
- As a result of the interviews, the Selection Board will recommend the most suitable candidate(s) for this post to be placed on a reserve list. The minimum threshold to be placed on the reserve list is 65% of the total points.
- The reserve list will be presented to the Appointing Authority who ultimately may appoint the successful candidate to the post.
- The established reserve list may also be used for recruitment of similar posts depending on the Agency's needs. Where a similar post becomes available, the Appointing Authority may select applicants from the list according to their profile in relation to the specific requirements of the post to be filled. However, inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.
- If, at any stage of the procedure, it is established that any of the information the candidate provided is incorrect, the candidate in question will be disqualified.

Indicative date for the interview and written test¹³:	April/May 2017
---	----------------

Candidates are strictly forbidden to make any contact with the Selection Board members, either directly or indirectly. Any infringement of this rule will lead to disqualification from the selection procedure.

¹³ The date might be modified depending on the availability of the Selection Board members.

5. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

For applications to be considered valid, candidates must submit an email to jobs@gsa.europa.eu with a subject line of 'SURNAME_Name_Vacancy Reference Number' and which contains the Agency's approved application form (Download it here: <http://www.gsa.europa.eu/gsa/job-opportunities>).

This form must be:

- Completed in English
- Fully completed, pointing out the professional experience relevant to this position (incl. calculation of years, months)
- Printed, signed and clearly scanned in (in one single document)
- Named as follows: SURNAME_Name_Vacancy Ref. number (e.g. SPENCER_Marc_GSA.2012.123)

The application will be rejected if it is not duly completed and signed.

Further supporting documents showing evidence of the information given in the application will be requested at a later stage.

No documents will be sent back to candidates.

Applications must be sent to jobs@gsa.europa.eu and received by the deadline listed on page 01 of this vacancy notice at the latest, clearly indicating the vacancy reference number in the subject line.

Applications sent after the deadline will not be considered.

Candidates are reminded not to wait until the final days before the closing date of applications' submissions. The Agency cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to any overflow of the mailbox.

6. APPEAL PROCEDURE

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can:

- lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

European GNSS Agency (GSA)
Human Resources Department
Janovského 438/2
170 00 Prague 7
Czech Republic

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the action adversely affecting him/her.

- submit a judicial appeal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 of the EC Treaty) and Article 91 of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities to the:

European Union Civil Service Tribunal
Boulevard Konrad Adenauer
Luxembourg 2925
LUXEMBOURG

For details of how to submit an appeal, please consult the website of the European Union Civil Service Tribunal: http://curia.europa.eu/jcms/jcms/Jo1_6308/. The time limits for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004, published in Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 — <http://eur-lex.europa.eu>) start to run from the time you become aware of the act allegedly prejudicing your interests.

- make a complaint to the European Ombudsman:

European Ombudsman
1 avenue du Président Robert Schuman
CS 30403
67001 Strasbourg Cedex
FRANCE
<http://www.ombudsman.europa.eu>

Please note that complaints made to the Ombudsman have no suspensive effect on the period laid down in Articles 90(2) and 91 of the Staff Regulations for lodging complaints or for submitting appeals to the Civil Service Tribunal under Article 270 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the EU (ex Art. 236 TEC). Please note also that, under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

7. SUMMARY OF CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

I. FINANCIAL ENTITLEMENTS

The remuneration consists of a basic salary¹⁴ and, where applicable, additional allowances¹⁵, paid on a monthly basis and reimbursements¹⁶, paid upon their evidenced occurrence.

The sum of the basic salary and the applicable additional allowances is weighted by the correction coefficient applicable for the location of the post¹⁷. The sum of usual social deductions from salary at source is subtracted from the weighted amount¹⁸. The full pay is exempted from the national income tax, but is subject to the internal income tax and the solidarity levy¹⁹.

Examples of net monthly salaries (as currently applicable in Prague) are presented below:

FG IV 13 (less than 8 years of work experience after the relevant diploma) ²⁰
a) Minimum final net salary (without any allowances)	b) Final net salary with expatriation allowance	c) Final net salary with expatriation, household and 1 dependent child allowance
2,071.58 EUR	2,396.63 EUR	2,998.14 EUR
FG IV 14 (more than 8 years of work experience after the relevant diploma) ¹⁷
a) Minimum final net salary (without any allowances)	b) Final net salary with expatriation allowance	c) Final net salary with expatriation, household and 1 dependent child allowance
2,246.71 EUR	2,691.14 EUR	3,307.39 EUR

II. LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service plus additional days for the grade, age, home leaves for expatriates and an average of 16 GSA public holidays per year.

Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, moving, elections, birth or adoption of a child, serious sickness of spouse, etc.

¹⁴ As per Articles 92 and 93 CEOS.

¹⁵ Household allowance (e.g. if you have a dependent child or you are married and your spouse's income is below a defined threshold); Dependent child allowance (e.g. if you have a child under the age of 18 or between 18 and 26, if in specified training programme); Education allowances (in very specific cases) or Payment of the education fees applicable to the educational institutions GSA has agreement with (currently more than 17 international schools in the Czech Republic and France); Expatriation allowance (16% of the sum of basic salary and other applicable allowances).

¹⁶ If staff member is requested to change their residence in order to take up the duties, s/he will be entitled to: reimbursement of the travel costs; temporary daily subsistence allowance (e.g. EUR 39.48 for up to 10 months or EUR 31.83 for 120 days, if no dependents); installation allowance (depending on personal situation, 1 or 2 months of the basic salary – paid upon successful completion of the nine-month probationary period).

¹⁷ Currently correction coefficients for the GSA duty locations are: 73.2% for CZ, 113.8% for FR, 141.8% for UK, 108% for NL. The coefficient is updated every year, with retroactive effect from 1 July.

¹⁸ Pension (10,1%); health insurance (1,70%); accident cover (0,10%); unemployment insurance (0,81%).

¹⁹ Currently: income tax: tax levied progressively at a rate of between 8% and 45% of the taxable portion of the salary; solidarity levy: 6%.

²⁰ Kindly note that the numbers in examples b) and c) are indicative and net monthly remuneration varies depending on the personal, life and social situation of the incumbent. The various components of the remuneration are updated every year, with retroactive effect from 1 July.

III. SOCIAL SECURITY

The pension scheme provides a very competitive pension after a minimum of 10 years of service and reaching the pensionable age. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at GSA may be transferred into the EU pension system.

GSA's benefits include an attractive Health insurance: staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, accident and occupational disease, and could be entitled to unemployment and to invalidity allowances.

IV. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND BENEFITS CONTRIBUTING TO WORK-LIFE BALANCE

GSA aims at creating and maintaining a supportive and healthy work environment that enables staff members to have balance between work and personal responsibilities, for example through flexible working time arrangements.

GSA also offers a wide range of training courses to develop staff members' personal skills and keep in touch with the latest developments in their field. The training and professional development opportunities are attuned to the career plan and requirements of the departments.

8. COMMITMENT

Declaration of commitment to serve the public interest independently:

The jobholder will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make a declaration in relation to any interest that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

The jobholder will be required to carry out his/her duties and conduct him/herself solely with the interests of the European Union in mind; he/she shall neither seek nor take instruction from any government, authority, organisation or person outside his/her institution. He/she shall carry out the duties assigned with objectivity, impartiality and loyalty to the European Union.

Commitment to promote equal opportunities:

The Agency is an equal opportunities employer and strongly encourages applications from all candidates who fulfil the eligibility and selection criteria without any distinction whatsoever on grounds of nationality, age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, gender or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or other family situation.

9. DATA PROTECTION

The personal information GSA requests from candidates will be processed in line with Regulation (EC) N° 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

<http://eur-lex.europa.eu/LexUriServ/LexUriServ.do?uri=OJ:L:2001:008:0001:0022:EN:PDF>

The purpose of processing personal data which candidates submit is to manage applications in view of possible pre-selection and recruitment at GSA. All personal data collected will only be used for this purpose and will in no case be transmitted to any third party. Any data provided will be treated in the strictest confidence and with high standards of security.

Applicants' documents will only be kept for as long as it is mandatory to fulfil the requirements of existing auditing/control procedures applicable to GSA.

Applicants have a right to access their data. They have a right to update or correct at any time their identification data. On the other hand, data demonstrating compliance with the eligibility and selection criteria may not be updated or corrected after the closing date for the respective selection procedure.

Applicants are entitled to have recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (<http://www.edps.europa.eu>; EDPS@edps.europa.eu) if they consider that their rights under Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 have been infringed as a result of the processing of their personal data by the GSA.
